STREET DEPARTMENT.

REPORT OF STREET COMMISSIONER.

To the City Council of Laconia :

It becomes my duty as street commissioner to submit a report of the work done under my supervision for the last eleven months. I took charge of the department April 1, 1894. My predecessor having been in charge six weeks after his report was rendered, I render account of bills approved by him during that time.

During the year there has been much work of a permanent character completed, such as the building of the approach to Gold Street bridge; building River street wall; Edgewater avenue; Jefferson street; new street from Union avenue to Ransom Coburn's place in the Avery field; fill on Adams street; completing Joliet street fill; building wall and putting Oak street to grade and the large fill at the Weirs, the cost of which I will render a complete statement. There has also been several important additions to the system of surface sewers, an itemized statement of the cost of which is herewith presented. I have painted the iron bridge at the Weirs, at a cost of $64.18.

All streets and highways within the city limits have been cleared of bushes during the past year. Although the expense has been considerable, a large saving has been made thereby in the item of the cost of breaking roads, as the snow does not drift as badly as when the highways were lined with bushes. I have repaired Elm and Mill street bridges. Your attention is called to the fact that the city has seven wooden bridges, all of which, save one, will be subject to extensive repairs in the near future.

Last fall the city put in 500 feet of house sewer on the Veterans' grounds at the Weirs, and the pipe is on the ground for the completion of the work.

At its completion the city will be entitled to one half of the appropriation of $3,000, allowed by the state for water and sewers at the Weirs. During my term of office there have been bought one new road-machine and two snow-rollers, all of which have been of material advantage in the matter of the saving of expense for labor. Every street outside the thickly settled portions has been "turnpiked" and made a first-class driveway; but these streets will not take care of themselves.

Right here let me quote Capt. Orvis A. Brown in his address before the convention of the National League for Good Roads, held at Washington, D. C., January 17, 1893. He says: "The great point in having good roads is the care of them after they are made. This is not expensive, but it is every day work. It is absolutely necessary to have good roads that someone should look after them after they are built; especially during and following a rain, that the water may be kept off as far as is possible.

"Again, money collected to build roads should not be considered as a tax; it is as buying what we need.

"A road (and the better it is the cheaper will transportation be on it) is as necessary to transportation as a horse, vehicle, or harness. The latter, then, should be relieved as much as possible of wear and breakage, and the road (cheaper than vehicles and teams to keep in good order) should receive the least possible damage, by making it so as to resist wear."

The city of Laconia has over 67 miles of streets, consequently it requires constant care to keep them in suitable repair safe for travel. I would recommend that the city purchase a 12-ton steam roller, even if it has to be paid for out of the annual appropriation. In my opinion it would be a good investment, as we could then get some benefit from our stone crusher (which the city has never used), and by doing a small amount of macadamizing every year we should soon have all our streets macadamized at a great saving of expense.

I would state that nearly one thousand dollars of the regular appropriation was required to prepare Church and Beacon streets for the concrete. Several petitions for new highways have been referred to the next city government, which, if granted, will require an additional appropriation of several thousand dollars.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES E. BUZZELL,
Street Commissioner.

† Sewerage tank. * Private property.

CONCLUSION.

The system of sewers constructed during the year 1891 is giving perfect satisfaction, no stoppages of any kind having occurred during the past year. In flushing out the system and preparing it for the coming winter, some trouble was found, caused by roots of elm trees that had found their way into the pipe through a very small hole in the cement at the bottom of a joint, and after once getting inside they had grown very fast, filling the sewer about three quarters full. This would have stopped the flow of sewerage had it not been for the flush tank discharging with sufficient force to keep everything comparatively clean. A few of the flush tanks have been cracked somewhat by the action of the frost, but in general the expense of repairs has been very small. The new plumbing ordinance adopted last year is giving universal satisfaction. Since its meaning has been made plain to the public, no trouble of any kind has been experienced by this department in its enforcement.

The contract for sewers in ward six, let to Messrs. Everson and Liddle of Providence, R. I., has been completed with the exception of a few repairs and alterations to be made in the spring.

I am confident that this system will prove to be a first class job in every respect, although the pecuniary profits to the contractors must have been exceedingly small.

The cost of this work was largely increased by the filling of a portion of Messer street and the building of retaining walls, and it is my firm belief that a portion of this cost should have been charged to the street department. A part of this street still remains to be filled, for which a contract should be signed in the spring.

Connections with this system were commenced October 24, 1894, and about thirty-five buildings are receiving the benefit of the same during this present winter.

I wish to take this opportunity to express my thanks to Mr. W. H. Chapman and to Mr. Forrest G. Berry, who, by their integrity and faithful attention to duties intrusted to them, have made it possible for me to successfully complete this system at a cost that will compare very favorably with work done in other places of the same character.

To the members of the council, and to his Honor, the mayor, I would like to express my appreciation for the courtesy and confidence which they have tendered me during the past year.

Respectfully submitted :

WILLIAM NELSON,

Superintendent of Sewers.

CONCLUSION.

The reason for the over-drawing of this account was owing in part to the amount paid for labor giving the new gas company a location for their pipes, and also for filing the returns of new streets laid out by the City Council after the money in this department had been expended.

The demands upon this office for information concerning street lines and grades have steadily increased, and there can be no doubt that the work in this direction will still increase very rapidly for the next ten years.

The location of nearly all the streets laid out previous to the year 1890 is almost indeterminate, and to be called upon by an abutting land owner for the location of the lines of a street, returned in the old town records as starting from a point opposite a house and running southerly to a spotted tree that passed out of existence twenty years ago, places the head of this department in a position somewhat embarrassing.

At the time when most of the streets now in use were located, the value of the land crossed was very small, in some cases was considered almost nothing. To-day the abutting property owners justly feel that a strip of land taken from what they always supposed was theirs is not only a loss to them, but that it is somewhat unjust. Most of the older surveys were made with a compass and chain, and were at that time and are to-day considered fairly accurate, if the most probable error of closure in the work was not more than one in three hundred. Modern city practice requires it to be not more than one in one thousand, and in general should average less than one in five thousand. It is almost impossible to retrace an old street line without causing more or less trouble on one side or the other.

In view of the above facts I would respectfully recommend that a committee on surveys be appointed by the mayor, consisting of the mayor and two members of the city council, to act in conjunction with the city engineer in establishing and permanently marking the boundaries and grades of all the streets and highways in this city, and that they be granted all the power and authority possible under the laws of the state of New Hampshire and the ordinances of the city of Laconia.

A little of this work done each year will make it possible sometime in the future to make a correct and complete map of the city that will not only be of benefit to the board of assessors, but will greatly assist the heads of all departments in the planning of their work.

Respectfully submitted :

WILLIAM NELSON,

City Engineer.

ORGANIZATION.

The organization of the department at present is as follows: City marshal, assistant marshal, four patrolmen, and twenty-three special reserve officers. During the past year two of the special officers have died and one other has resigned. I have only words of praise for the members of the reserve force, who have rendered much valuable assistance to the department, especially about the locality in which they live. There are, however, some portions of the city in which there are no special officers, and I believe the number should be increased, care being taken in their selection, so as to cover the localities not already furnished with an officer. Their appointment is no expense to the city, and is a strong factor in preserving the peace and otherwise assisting the regular officers.

POLICE STATION.

I would again call the attention of the city council to the necessity of providing a more suitable station for the department, and I am frank to say I believe the citizens in general are in favor of the construction of a building both for the police and fire departments. Chief Engineer Sanders's recommendation to the effect that such a building be erected, meets with my hearty approval, and I respectfully recommend the appropriation of $5,000 in addition to the $15,000 recommended by Chief Sanders, which amount ought to be sufficient to erect a building that would meet the requirements of the city for many years to come.

CONCLUSION.

By reference to the detailed report of arrests it will be seen that there has been no crime of a very serious nature committed in the city during the past year. This is commendable, and reflects credit upon the community. I would say that during my connection with the department I have endeavored to administer the affairs of my office faithfully, impartially, and economically. How well I have succeeded, however, is for the good people of Laconia to decide. I wish to extend my thanks to his honor Mayor Busiel and the members of the city council for the many acts of kindness and assistance they have rendered the department; to Assistant Marshal Bailey and all the officers who have so ably assisted me, my thanks are due. I would acknowledge my obligations to the committee on police, Councilmen Tetley, Drake, and Kellogg, Judge F. M. Beckford, Associate Justice G. H. Everett, and Clerk M. B. Plummer for the courteous treatment received at their hands, also to City Solicitor S. S. Jewett, whose wise counsel has been of great value to me.

REPORT OF CITY SOLICITOR.

To the City Council of Laconia :

I have the honor to submit my report, it being the second annual report of the law department of the city.

Of the litigated cases in which the city was interested, mentioned in my last report, the following have been disposed of, viz. : Cases numbers 466, 497, 540, 583, 635, and 659, on the equity docket of the supreme court for Belknap county, were petitions for abatement of taxes assessed by the town of Gilford on that portion of said town now comprising Ward six. In these cases the decree of the court was for an abatement of a portion of the tax, and the amount due from the city to the Lake Company has been paid.

The case of Laconia & Lake Village Horse Railroad against Laconia and Gilford, which was a bill in equity brought at the March term of the supreme court, 1893, for an injunction to restrain the defendants from the alleged obstructing of the tracks of the railroad, has been dismissed, and the same may be said of the case of James L. Dixon against the city and Forrest G. Berry and Lydia J. Bartlett against the city.

In the case Peter J. Cook against Joseph L. Robinson, which was an action brought by the plaintiff against the defendant, who was employed in 1892 in the building of a new street, to recover damages for alleged trespass in the construction of the street, the plaintiff claimed a larger amount of damages than, in the judgment of the city council, the land taken for use in the construction of the highway was worth. No settlement was therefore made, and a trial was had in the spring of 1894, and damages of a less amount than that claimed were awarded by the court, which have been paid by the city.

The petition of the Winnipiseogee Lake Cotton & Woolen Manufacturing Company for abatement of taxes assessed in the year 1893 is still pending in court, and a like petition for abatement of taxes for the year 1894 is also pending. A date for trial has been fixed, and these cases will probably be disposed of within a short time.

The case of Charles A. Jewett against the city, being a petition for assessment of damages claimed on account of an alleged change of the grade of Garfield street in the summer of 1892, has been tried, but no judgment has yet been rendered. At the September term, 1894, of the supreme court for Belknāp county, a petition was filed by Rose E. Colby for alleged damages to her land on Union avenue by reason of an alleged change of grade in said avenue. The matter was referred to the county commissioners, and a partial hearing has been had.

There has also been recently filed in court by Messrs. Gardner and Addison G. Cook, of Laconia, an appeal in the matter of the laying out of an extension of Bay street, as well as from the damages assessed in said laying out. This appeal will be in order for disposal, by reference to the county commissioners, at the March term of the supreme court, 1895.

At the September term, 1894, of the supreme court for Belknap county, there were entered several cases wherein the town of Gilford was plaintiff and various parties defendant, involving claims of the town of Gilford for taxes collected and uncollected before the incorporation of the city. These cases also involve a construction of the city charter by the court. None of them have as yet been tried.

Various other suits have been brought by different people where the city has or may be interested as trustee or otherwise.

As I suggested in my last report, the uniting of practically two towns under a city government brings about a vast deal of work to perfect the machinery of municipal government and bring everything into perfect working order. It cannot all be done in one year or two years, but I feel warranted in saying that up to this time very many legal questions which have arisen have been satisfactorily met and attended to. Outside of litigated cases numberless questions have arisen demanding legal opinions.

To the duties of the office I have given my best attention, with the earnest desire to faithfully fulfil the duty imposed upon me.

I again desire to express to the various city officers, to the members of the council, and his honor the mayor, my sincere appreciation for their kindness and confidence.

Very respectfully submitted :

STEPHEN S. JEWETT,
City Solicitor.

REPORT OF BOARD OF HEALTH.

To the City Council of Laconia :

GENTLEMEN : We have the honor of submitting the following report of the sanitary work for the year ending February 15, 1895 :

Nuisances abated	77
Vaults ordered cleaned	31
Permits for cleaning vaults	11
Connecting with sewers	75
Ordered to connect with sewers	24
Foul sink drains	67
Animals buried	9
Removal of offal	16
Filthy cellars	2
Bad wells	4
Foul water-closets	21
Filthy alley-ways	3
Damp cellars	2
Sinks without traps	7
Coal ashes in street	1
Houses closed up	6
Complaints made	226

Contagious and infectious diseases :

Typhoid fever	12
Membranous croup	1
Diphtheria	3
Measles	2

We desire to call the attention of the mayor and council to the city water-closet in the rear of Post-office block, and recommend its removal, as it is absolutely impossible to keep it in a condition not liable to breed disease. It is wholly constructed of pine, and readily absorbs and retains matter deleterious to the public health. If a city closet, or closets, are necessary, we advise that they be constructed in such places and of such materials that the public health will not be endangered thereby. We believe that the rules and regulations of the board, as approved by the mayor and council and posted by us, have been respected and obeyed by the public at large, and we desire to express our thanks to all for the support and hearty coöperation we have received during the year just closed.

We have given prompt attention to all complaints, and have remedied all evils, so far as lay within our power, without resort to the courts, and have, we believe, acted within the provisions of the statutes and of the rules prescribed by the state board of health.

We are confident that the sanitary conditions of the city to-day are in as good condition, excepting the water-closet before referred to, as could be reasonably expected, and will, we believe, compare favorably with any other city in New Hampshire.

Hoping that we may not be charged with egotism, we refer with much pride to our efforts in suppressing that dreaded disease, scarlet-fever. The fact that no new cases cropped out demonstrates beyond the power of contradiction that the methods adopted and used by us were efficacious in suppressing the disease, and that any and all expense incurred was as nothing when compared with the benefits received. In the absence of serious epidemics, we think from five to six hundred dollars are sufficient to cover the expenses of the board of health, including salaries.

D. L. DAVIS,
W. H. TRUE,
F. E. ELKINS,

Board of Health.

W. H. TRUE, Secretary.

Dated at Laconia, this 15th day of February, 1895.

REPORT OF CITY PHYSICIAN.

To the City Council of Laconia :

It should be a cause of gratification to every citizen of Laconia to know that during the industrial depression we are now undergoing, so few of our citizens have been obliged to ask aid of the city in this department.

No sickness of importance has come under our care in the year just past. We have been especially free from epidemics of contagious disease.

What few cases of scarlatina, diphtheria, and typhoid fever have appeared have been early recognized and properly isolated, usually confining the disease to the household in which it originated.

In view of the recent discovery of anti-toxine as a preventive and cure of diphtheria, I would recommend that the city be prepared to test its merits whenever occasion presents itself. If it gives one half the benefit claimed for it by its supporters, it would seem like negligence on our part not to have a suitable supply of anti-toxine at hand for use whenever diphtheria appears.

There have been about seventy-five school children who have applied for and received vaccination from this office. There are many more now attending school unvaccinated. If vaccination is good for one it is necessary for all. Many parents unwisely object to vaccination in the colder months. It seems to me that this can be easily overcome. Our school regulations allow classes to be formed at the beginning of the fall and summer terms only. There is certainly time enough for parents who intend to send children to school to have them vaccinated. I would recommend that a rigid enforcement of the law be had, and that no child be allowed to attend a single session until he has a certificate of vaccination, approved by the board of health. I congratulate the city on the completion of the sewer in Ward six. With our excellent water-supply, complete sewerage and an efficient board of health, I see no reason why sickness cannot be reduced to a minimum as far as sanitary precautions are concerned.

Respectfully submitted :

City Physician.

POOR DEPARTMENT.

REPORT OF THE OVERSEER OF THE POOR WARDS 2, 3, 4, 5.

LACONIA, N. H., Feb. 15, 1895.

To the City Council of Laconia :

H. W. CAREY, OVERSEER OF POOR,

In account with

. CITY OF LACONIA, WARDS 2, 3, 4, 5.

Amount paid during the year, for an itemized account of which see elsewhere in this report . . . $593.46

The care of the worthy poor of our city has been a trying question the past year, for two reasons, viz. : first, the distressingly hard times which have been growing worse continually, and the difficulty in discriminating between the undeserving and those who are truly destitute.

In the former we have labored vigorously to keep within the appropriation for this department, and as to the latter a thorough investigation has been prosecuted in each case to ascertain the exact condition of all those applying for aid.

The bill, as will be seen, from the State Industrial School is much larger this year than formerly, on account of two new members having been sent there from this city within the year. Also a pauper family has been transferred from the county to the city, which has helped to swell the bill. On the other hand the city has been relieved of two paupers the past two months, while the expenses of the others have been reduced to the minimum.

As to the expenses for the coming year, we see no reason why they should not be kept within the limits of the past year unless something unforeseen occurs.

Respectfully submitted,

H. W. CAREY,
Overseer of Poor.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

REPORT OF CHIEF ENGINEER.

To the City Council of Laconia :

In compliance with the laws and ordinance of the city, I herewith submit my annual report of the department, giving a complete record of the operation of the department for the year ending February 15, 1895, with a detailed statement of the fires and alarms that have been responded to, together with the causes of such fires as far as the same have been ascertained, with the amount of insurance paid and amount of loss thereon.

There have been 24 alarms during the year ; the amount of damage as assessed, $90,669.31 ; the amount of insurance paid on losses, $70,155.57, making the net loss recovered by insurance $30,513.74. This year have occurred the greatest losses for a good many years. The car-shop fire, June 3, was the occasion of the greatest loss, and while considerable comment has been made on the fire, no satisfactory reason has been given why the water-supply was not as efficient as usual, and I am satisfied that if the water pressure had been what it usually is, the loss at this fire would have been a great deal less.

February 21. Alarm, box 25. Building owned by A. G. Folsom ; occupied by D. B. Donovan and others. Loss on building, $950 ; insurance, $950. Loss on contents, $3,780 ; insurance, $3,780.

February 25. Alarm, box 25. Building owned by J. H. Weeks ; occupied by J. H. Hatch. Loss on building, $25 ; insurance paid, $25. Loss on contents, $25 ; insurance paid, $25. Cause of fire, probably incendiary.

Loss on building O. A. Atkinson, $5,000; insurance, $3,500. Insurance in litigation, $1,000. Loss on contents, as near as could be ascertained, $150. Loss on building Charles Stevens, $100; insurance, $100. Cause, probably spontaneous combustion.

July 8. Alarm, box 25. Building owned by Belknap Mills; occupied by Hodgdon & Holt Manufacturing Co. Loss on contents, $1,900; insurance, $1,900. Cause, spontaneous combustion.

August 4. Bell alarm. Building owned by H. E. Brawn; occupied by E. C. Batchelder and others. Loss on building, $210; insurance, $210. Loss on contents, Batchelder, $232.31; insurance, $232.31. Loss on contents, Sanborn & St. Clair, $50; insurance, $50. Cause, probably incendiary.

APPARATUS.

The general condition of the apparatus is good. The steamer has been repaired and put in first class condition at quite a large expense, and is now quite as good as new. By vote of your honorable body the department was deprived of one of its hose carriages, which makes the department one piece of apparatus short.

FIRE ALARM TELEGRAPH.

The fire alarm has been extended to Ward 6 the past year, and is giving good satisfaction. Mr. H. H. Wardwell has been appointed superintendent, Mr. E. F. Dean, the former superintendent, having resigned owing to other business engagements.

HYDRANT SERVICE.

We have 102 hydrants in use, including 17 private ones.

HOSE INVENTORY.

Ten thousand five hundred feet of hose, good, bad, and indifferent, is the sum total of the equipment in this department. A large quantity of this is old and entirely unfit for use and has been condemned and thrown out of service the past year. I have been offered a small sum per foot for this old hose and shall ask your permission to sell the same.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

I would recommend the purchase of 3,000 feet of 2½-inch Red Cross hose at once, as a large amount of the hose reported last year as fair and poor has entirely given out and is of no use to the department.

I would recommend the purchase of a horse hose wagon to replace the one conveyed to the Niagara Veteran Association by your honorable body last year. I would also recommend that a hose house be built in Ward 6, at a sum not to exceed $400. We are now paying three per cent. on this amount for very poor quarters.

There are several more fire alarm boxes needed for the better protection of property, but undoubtedly we can get along this year without any increase of expense in that direction.

I renew my recommendation of last year that a horse be provided for the use of the department. The department has been several times delayed the past year on account of the city horses being so far away from the city proper. It is not unusual for the city horses to be four or five miles away from the engine house, and should an alarm be given at such a time, the delay to the department might cause serious danger.

I again call your attention to the condition of the engine houses, which have outlived their usefulness, and I think the time has come when the people would approve of building a new central fire station and police building combined, and believe that an expenditure of $15,000, in connection with $5,000 recommended by the city marshal for the purpose of building a new building, would be received with satisfaction by the people.

I would recommend an amendment to the city ordinance on fire alarm, restricting any person or corporation from placing any wire above the wires of the fire alarm.

In concluding, I desire to extend my thanks to His Honor Mayor Busiel, and to the members of the city council, for the interest they have manifested in the welfare of the department, and the support they have given the department the past year; to my associate engineers, and officers and men in the department, for their faithfulness to duty and the promptness and obedience with which they have responded to every call.

Respectfully submitted :

GEORGE A. SANDERS,

Chief Engineer of Fire Department.

PUBLIC LIBRARIES.

During the past year, as will be seen by the report of the treasurer, about seven hundred dollars have been expended in the purchase of new books, and the trustees have been able to appropriate, out of the amount placed in their hands this year, after paying expenses, four hundred dollars, and the librarian will soon have the new books ready for use—one hundred and fifty dollars for the Lakeport library and two hundred and fifty dollars for the Laconia Library, that will be paid for out of the balance now in the hands of the treasurer.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

To the Citizens of the City of Laconia :

The past year in our school department has been one of general satisfaction apparently.

If the schools of Laconia will keep abreast with other towns, its scholars must have more and better school-rooms. The old-fashioned method of heating with stoves, and no ventilation, except by the barbaric practice of hoisting a window, must forever be dismissed and be replaced by modern, but not necessarily expensive, methods.

There must be one, at least, new building erected at Ward 6, if we will cease to endanger the lives of those who attend school in buildings that would be difficult to let for any purpose save that for educational purposes. We urge upon all parents and guardians the necessity of becoming better acquainted with our school system and school-houses which are a large portion of the year the homes of children from whom they in a short time will expect so much.

We recommend that buildings hereafter erected shall be substantial structures, not expensive, but permanent and lasting, and made of brick. They will be needed as long as this place is inhabited, we hope, and there is no excuse for constructing temporary places for schools, as has been done so much in the past and is being done at the present.

The two old school buildings situated on Washington and School streets in Ward 6 should be discontinued and a new four-room building erected on the lot now occupied by the Washington street school. But this is not as imperative as that another building should be constructed in the vicinity of Pear street, to take the place of the old school-house situated on this street. The situation here is unfit entirely for school purposes, and no child should be allowed, much less compelled, to attend school in any locality with such surroundings.

To carry on our school system another year as now conducted, and pay some outstanding bills not presented in the business year ending February 15, 1895, there will be needed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), and to construct a building in Ward 6 suitable for school requirements calls for an additional appropriation of nine thousand dollars ($9,000). There should be appropriated for these two purposes, then, thirty-four thousand dollars ($34,000) in the aggregate.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS.

To the Board of Education :

I herewith submit my sixth annual report as superintendent of schools.

The year that has just closed has seen several important changes in the organization of the schools ; and, while it is yet too early to note the effect of all changes that have been made, it may not be amiss to refer briefly to one of the most important of them.

Last year there were within the city limits three separate school systems, under the direction of the same school board it is true, but each working independently of the other two ; and not on converging lines. The schools in the lower wards were graded up to a high-school course which, in turn, was adjusted to meet the requirements for admission to the various colleges and technical schools of the country. The schools in Ward 6 were also graded up to a high-school course somewhat different from that maintained in the lower wards of the city, and the course in the suburban schools had no logical ending.

At the close of the spring term it seemed best to unite these separate systems under one management in order that there might be uniformity of purpose and methods throughout the schools of the city. The work of uniting the three systems was undertaken upon the basis of the course of study adopted for the schools of Wards 2, 3, 4, and 5. While this course is not an ideal one, yet it is in the main in accordance with modern educational ideas and is fairly well adapted to our present needs.

The task of grading the schools in accordance with this course, while not a difficult one, is one involving the element of time and cannot be accomplished at once.

The suburban schools being wholly ungraded cannot follow our course exactly, but a course, modified to suit their needs, is being prepared which will, I think, add to their efficiency. There are a number of bright pupils in our suburban schools and they ought to do substantially the same work that is done in our grammar schools and when that is completed they should become members of our high school. There seems to be no good reason why the ungraded schools cannot prepare their pupils for admission to the high school just as well as the grammar schools do; that they have not done so in the past, is believed to be due to causes which are removable. Another year, I think, will show improvement both in the quantity and quality of their work.

The work and general spirit of the schools have been good, and will compare favorably with those of previous years. The relations existing between teachers and pupils have been, in the main, pleasant and harmonious and few cases of discipline have been brought to my notice.

While the cases of corporal punishment have not been unusually numerous, yet I should have been gratified had the number been smaller than it is. I am not prepared to advocate a regulation forbidding such punishments, but I believe that they should seldom be resorted to; and that if we could secure the coöperation of parents, we could dispense with them altogether. It is a significant fact that the buildings reporting most corporal punishments are not the ones where good order and good feeling most prevail, and I feel sure that had the teachers neglected to punish in half the instances reported, the efficiency of the schools would not have suffered.

We have incorporated most of the modern subjects into our course of study. The work in history and geography is now conducted for the most part in accordance with the approved modern methods. In literature and elementary science we have made a pretty good beginning, and if the work is intelligently carried on, we shall soon be doing good work in both these lines.

It does not seem to me that our course calls for further expansion the coming year; although many places have introduced algebra, geometry, and a foreign language into their grammar schools, it does not seem to me to be wise to take up new subjects faster than we can assimilate them, and until our teaching of some of the older subjects will bear the burden of a more searching criticism, I would not add to the present requirements.

I have, in a previous report, advocated the establishment of one or more kindergartens, and I renew the recommendation this year. It is the missing link in our educational system. Its value is universally admitted. Without it we are building our structure without the foundation. It is the connecting link between the home and the primary school. There are few children who pass from the home life to the school life without experiencing a period of arrested mental development. The kindergarten, combining certain characteristics both of home and school, affords a preparation for the school work whose value is felt all through the primary grades. I would urge again that the kindergarten be made a part of our public school system without unnecessary delay.

A large number of families have evidently moved away during the summer, for at the opening of the fall term our enrolment was perceptibly decreased. This decrease has been felt chiefly in the primary grades, where the average attendance has fallen to about thirty-five pupils. This comparatively small number has given the primary schools a chance to recover somewhat from the effects of the past two years of overcrowding. It is probable that the spring term will see an increased enrolment in the primary schools, though it is not probable that the average number will rise above forty.

The enrolment in the high and grammar schools has been unusually large, and, though all have done creditable work, yet some have been hampered by the lack of adequate accommodations; particularly has this been the case in the high school. For the past five years this school has enjoyed a steady growth, and the outlook promises a still larger growth in the near future. I attribute its past prosperity to the liberal support which it has received from the community, and I ask for the continuance of that liberality now that its numbers place it among the larger high schools of the state and the character of its work broadens and its needs multiply.

The only need of the school to which I desire to call attention at this time is that of more room. The present accommodations are insufficient, and it is almost a certainty that the number of pupils another year will reach 150, and with the room now at our disposal we cannot accommodate them.

A school of its present size and future promise seems to me to be worthy of a building by itself, apart from the lower schools. To obtain this, it would be necessary to erect another building somewhere in the vicinity for the accommodation of the grammar schools now in the building and the schools which are occupying hired rooms, and to give up the present building entirely to the high school ; or, to erect a new high school building and give up the present one to the use of the grammar schools.

The latter plan would be the more expensive, but probably the more satisfactory in the end, for the present building, though it is an admirable and commodious one, is in its interior arrangement better adapted to grammar than high school uses, and its location is certainly not convenient for the pupils of Ward 6. A suitable high school building erected at some point on Union avenue accessible alike to the Laconia and Lakeport wards would accommodate all sections of the city, would solve—for the present at least—the question of school accommodations in the Laconia wards, and would increase the growth and prosperity of the school.

I commend this matter to your consideration, as the need of additional room is urgent. Further information concerning the high school and the work that it is doing may be found in the principal's report, which is appended.

In connection with the matter of school accommodations just mentioned, I wish to call attention to the Pear-street building, as being unfit for further occupancy. The school patrons in that section of the city are entitled to demand a new building, and they should have it before the schools open next fall.

Although the attendance for the year has been fairly good, yet, considering the fact that we have had little sickness to contend with, it ought to have been better. There are too many occasional absences. Pupils stay out for a half day or a day when there is no need of it, and if the parents realized the gross amount of time lost by these occasional absences, it does not seem possible that they would permit them to occur.

Taking as an illustration one month of the present school year, the total number of half day's absence, exclusive of non-memberships, was 3,123. These, if grouped together, would be equivalent to closing two entire schools of 40 pupils each for the whole month; and if the month selected was an average month,—and I have no reason to suppose that it was not,—the occasional absences for the year would amount to the total time of 80 pupils for the full school year.

Closely connected with this subject is that of tardiness. There has been more of it this year than usual, and certainly far more than there should be. It cannot well be controlled by regulations. The teacher, with the coöperation of the parents, can manage the matter better than any one else, and earnest, persistent effort on her part will usually secure a reasonably prompt and regular attendance on the part of her pupils.

Although tardiness is properly, under certain conditions, a punishable offence, yet I would not often resort to that measure, for the parent is frequently either directly or indirectly responsible, and deserves the punishment more than the child. While most of our teachers have worked hard to keep their attendance regular and prompt, yet some, I feel, have neglected the matter, and they should at once use all proper means to remedy this neglect.

A reference to the list of teachers reveals the fact that few of them have been long connected with our schools. It has seemed to be our misfortune to change teachers often, for frequent changes in the teaching force must be regarded as a misfortune. It is doubtful if a teacher can do her best work the first or second year of her service. It takes time to adjust oneself to the conditions of a new position; it takes time to become acquainted with the home life and character of the children; it takes time to grow into a sympathetic understanding of the character and motives of the people among whom her work is to be done, and it is only by an intimate knowledge of the motives, prejudices, and ways of living of the people of the community that a teacher can hope to do her best and most satisfactory work.

The element of time, then, should not be lost sight of, and it should be a settled policy, having secured efficient and conscientious teachers, to retain them as long as possible, and to retain only those who are efficient and conscientious. No teacher has just ground for complaint when dismissed, after proper notice, by the board acting in good faith, for the public schools were not established and are not maintained for the purpose of furnishing employment to any one. They are supported wholly for the benefit of the children and, through them, of the community at large.

Our present corps of teachers is, in the main, a good one, and most of them have done faithful work during the past year. A considerable amount of professional study has been undertaken, and the teachers' meetings have been carried on with more enthusiasm than usual. It is a good sign when teachers begin to feel the need of professional study, and the result of such study will surely be better teaching in the future.

It remains to speak of the subjects of music and drawing, which have been carried on, as last year, under the supervision of special teachers. The work has progressed satisfactorily in both departments. The instructors have devoted themselves faithfully to their work, and good work is being accomplished. For details, see special reports on music and drawing.

Attention is also called to the report of the truant officer, which contains some interesting details.

Altogether the year has been a profitable one, and its close finds the schools in good condition. We shall begin the new year under more favorable conditions than have existed in the past, and we shall endeavor to improve our work that is good and strengthen that which is weak.

My thanks are due to the members of the school board for their coöperation and support in the somewhat trying duties of the year, and to the teachers for their unfailing good will and patience in the adjustment of perplexing details.

The tables appended cover a period of thirty-one weeks, and contain some facts of interest in regard to the schools.

HIGH SCHOOL REPORT.

To W. N. Cragin, Superintendent of Schools, Lâconia, N. H. :

SIR :—In submitting a report on the high school allow me to thank you and the school board for the support and assistance which you have rendered my assistants and myself in our efforts in behalf of the school. It is fortunate that our relations are agreeable, as the greatest benefit to the school can only be obtained by the harmonious coöperation of all in authority and of the parents and pupils.

Up to the present time, during this school year, a large amount of work on the part of the principal has been required for organization and regulation. The incorporation of the commercial school as a department of the high school, the adoption of new courses of study in both departments, lack of room for carrying on the work, lack of teaching force during the first term, and the advent of a new principal and two new assistants have produced this requirement. The renovation of the third floor of the school building, giving an assembly room for the accommodation of all pupils, and a small recitation room, has partially remedied one of these difficulties. The employment of a much-needed fourth assistant has removed a second. As the pupils become accustomed to the new relations and requirements, the others will be diminished, yet a school of this size having a varied course of study will always demand much time from an efficient principal.

I believe that the school is at the present time in condition to do good work. I have confidence in the ability and faithfulness of my assistants. I also believe that the pupils for the most part are well disposed and desirous to acquire training and knowledge, and that they require only proper guidance and restriction.

More room is still much needed. Either a much larger room for the commercial department and more desk room for the other department, or one large room with desks for one hundred to one hundred and fifty pupils, must very soon be provided. In my opinion the latter alternative is the better. In that case, a room one half larger than the one occupied now would meet the necessities of that department. And, since no subject demands the attention of the teacher more completely than the distinctively commercial branches, his efforts should not be distracted by the care of pupils that are not reciting. Again, in that way all parts of the school would be more completely blended into one body of students working harmoniously. Both physical and chemical laboratories are needed. The former physical laboratory was taken for a part of the new assembly room, and the chemical one located in the basement is unfavorably situated, small, and not properly fitted up. An enumeration of these requirements,—and allow me to say that they are absolutely necessary to obtain the results that should be obtained by the expenditure of the city's appropriation,—shows that the necessities of the high school demand the use of the entire high-school building, or of another equally large, for high-school purposes.

Additions to the apparatus for both laboratories are needed. Also there is much need for reference books. A first-class modern cyclopedia should certainly be provided at once.

Respectfully submitted :

H. H. TUCKER.

REPORT OF THE MUSIC TEACHER.

LACONIA, N. H., February 22, 1895.

To the Superintendent of Schools:

In submitting this report I feel safe in saying that progress has been made in vocal music during the year now drawing to a close.

Some of the classes I am particularly proud of, and feel that they will compare favorably with those of a similar grade in other places, while some have not made the progress which we have a right to expect.

I am fully alive to the fact that pupils in many cases use too harsh a quality of tone and can be justly criticised for it; nevertheless I have worked with this fault (among others) in plain sight, and have tried to overcome it. I have probably not made a visit to a school during the year but what I have had cause to speak of this fault, "loud singing." In one of our primary rooms I had occasion to correct a child for this and he said, "My mamma says she wants me to sing so folks can hear me." I ask the aid of "home folks" in urging soft-voice singing among all our young singers, for, with only thirty minutes once a week and with from thirty to fifty pupils in a room, I have not much time to devote to individual work. Most of my work must be of a general character for in that time I must hear the old lesson and go through parts of the new lesson.

I find it hard, as I have said before, to keep up to the course of study in cases where there are two grades in a room, but we shall gain some over last year's work in this respect.

The high-school chorus sing in the new hall, which is much better than the high-school room for such a purpose, as the singers can be more comfortably seated. With few exceptions my work has been very pleasant and I would at this time thank all school officials and teachers for the help they have rendered me.

Respectfully submitted,

F. H. OSGOOD.

REPORT OF THE DRAWING TEACHER.

To the Board of Education :

The work in drawing this year has been carried on in nearly the same way as begun last year.

Grades one, two, three, four, and five are doing the work of their respective grades. The pupils in the higher grades are doing very satisfactory work when we consider that they have had instruction in this branch only one year, and some not even that.

The class which entered the high school in September, also the eighth and ninth grammar grades, have given a little time to geometric drawing. The results show with what great interest teachers as well as pupils took up the new work. It is a pleasure to be a co-worker with the teachers of Laconia, and to teach pupils who show such interest.

At present we are studying historic ornament, but to do this in the most satisfactory manner, a few casts, showing the characteristics of the different schools, and some colored charts are needed.

The spring term will be given mostly to nature study.

Next June we expect to show you some of the results of our year's work, but the drawings on paper are only a small part of what we hope to accomplish. By teaching drawing we expect to help make better citizens of the boys and girls of to-day, by developing a love for the beautiful and placing within their reach means for greater usefulness, both to themselves and the community in which they live.

Respectfully submitted :

LUCY N. NELSON,

Supervisor of Drawing.

The officer has taken a deep interest in his work, and hopes many a boy and girl will live to see the importance of attending school each day while the opportunity is offered them. When visiting the schools each week, I examined the registers, and often, at the request of the teachers, investigated the cause of tardiness. The great trouble during the fall and winter terms thus far has been from the effects of hard times. Many children are obliged to work before school hours, often causing them to be late at school, and when a child is late he dislikes to attend school that session.

In most cases kind words and friendly advice have brought about the desired result. In a few cases other means were resorted to. In many cases parents are more in fault than the children for their non-attendance. During each term several visits have been made to the hosiery mills and other places where minors are employed, and, generally speaking, the employers of this kind of labor are living up to the statute governing such employment.

In conclusion, I would take this opportunity to return my sincere thanks to the members of the board of education, to you, sir, for many favors shown, to the teachers in our schools, and to many others whom I have met officially during the year.

Respectfully submitted :

HENRY L. WILKINSON,

Truant Officer.
